JUDGMENT

H.L.DATTU, C.J.

After carefully perusing the petition averments, we are of the firm opinion that we do not see any iota of public interest in this litigation. The concept of public interest litigation and the concept of locus standi in such type of public interest litigation are now well explained by the apex Court. Keeping the dictum of the apex Court in our mind and having gone through the writ petition papers, we are of the opinion that no public interest is involved in this writ petition. Accordingly, we decline to entertain this writ petition. Accordingly, the writ petition is rejected.

Ordered accordingly.
